At the dinner table, I would like to ask/say:

KAI IS READY!!

Whakapākehatia

Kua reri ngā kai!

The food is ready!

Haere mai ki te kai!

Come to the table! Come to eat!

Kua mahora te kai

The food is set! (The meal is ready)

Kōtahi te karanga ki te tangata, e rua ki te kuri!!

One call for man, two for dogs! (Come to the table immediately!)

THE KAI WAS GREAT!!

Tino reka tēnei kai!

This food is very delicious!

Ka pai te kai!

The food is great!

Te reka hoki!

So delicious!

Namunamuā!

Yummy as!

He kai tāwara!

The food has a pleasant taste!

He mihi tino nui ki ngā ringa wera!

Many thanks to the cooks!

I AM FULL / SATISFIED!

Kua puta a Pito!

My bellybutton is popping out! (I am very full)

Kua tā te ihu!

A very positive compliment to the chef!

Mākona ana taku hiakai

I am so full , I couldn't eat any more! My hunger is satisfied!

Kia tau te mauri o te kai ki raro

Let the food settle in ones stomach. Don't rush your dinner guests!

Reo 2 Go Contract

I commit to using my Reo 2 Go kupu and phrases at least three times in the upcoming week with whānau, friends and/or workmates at a specified time and/or location.

I understand that by using what I learn on a regular basis outside of the classroom, I help to improve my confidence and fluency.

	Phrase Used:	When	Where	With whom
eg	"kia ora moko, homai he kihi!"	Friday	at the beach	my mokopuna
